Tim or Jane will be speaking about their work and how you can help further the goals of GAIA at all Masses next weekend. As always, the reliance on monetary assistance remains a great need. Any financial aid you can offer them will be greatly appreciated and will be used for the greater good among those they serve. You can use the envelopes that are in the pews.

Did You Know?

In the past, child abuse prevention programs focused on teaching children and young people that their “private body parts” are those parts of the body covered by a bathing suit. Teaching the concept of “total body safety” has become the latest practice. It is important for children to understand that their entire body is private. Parents should be watchful of adults who might be “grooming” a child by constantly tickling, kissing or hugging them. It is important to listen to a child and respect their wishes if they do not want to hug or kiss someone. For a copy of the VIRTUS article “Beyond the Myth of the Bathing Suit”, visit: <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx> or call (213) 637-7508.
