Year of Mercy Indulgence:

When a penitent receives absolution in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, he or she is freed from "eternal punishment," which is the loss of communion with God. "Temporal punishment," however, remains in the form of unhealthy attachment to worldly things, and requires purification here on earth or after death, in the state called purgatory.

This purification is a lifelong process of conversion to holiness, and it proceeds from fervent charity, works of mercy, prayer, and various practices of penance. Temporal punishment for one's sins can also be remitted or wiped away through the Church's doctrine and practice of indulgences. For the Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has extended a very special plenary indulgence, which is the full remission of all temporal punishment due to sin. This plenary indulgence can be applied to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, and can be obtained by fulfilling the following conditions:

- ◆ Perform the indulgenced work, which is either passing through a designated Holy Door, or performing one of the Corporal or Spiritual Works of Mercy.
- ◆ Be in the state of grace by sacramentally confessing your sins within 20 days of performing the indulgenced act.
- ◆ Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin.
- ◆ Receive Holy Eucharist (Holy Communion is sufficient if participating in Holy Mass is not possible).
- ◆ Pray for the intentions of the Pope. An Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested.

Seven Corporal Works of Mercy

Feed the hungry
Give drink to the thirsty
Clothe the naked
Shelter the homeless
Visit the sick
Visit the imprisoned
Bury the dead

Seven Spiritual Works of Mercy

Instruct the ignorant
Counsel the doubtful
Admonish the sinner
Bear wrongs patiently
Forgive others willingly
Comfort the afflicted
Pray for the living and the dead

Peter's Pence Collection This Weekend:

In today's collection for Peter's Pence, we are supporting Pope Francis in his charitable works. This collection is taken up worldwide to support our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, the collection is an opportunity to join suffering brothers and sisters. Thank you for your support of this very worthy effort.

Youth Ministry News:

Sweet tooth alert! Next weekend, following all Masses, our Youth Ministry members will be serving free ice cream sundaes for all! For once, let's live by the adage, "Life Is Uncertain—Eat Dessert First!" And if you donate a little something to show your appreciation, that would be awesome, too!

Immaculate Conception School News:

Avoid summer slide and keep your kids from being bored or glued to the TV or video games this summer by registering them in Immaculate Conception School's Imagination Station summer school program. This program begins Monday, June 20th and lasts until July 15th. Students can sharpen their math and reading skills, perform in a play, learn to cook and lots more! Hours are from 8:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. After school care is available, as are violin lessons. Immaculate Conception also offers a Transitional Kindergarten. Four-year olds will be better prepared, both academically and socially, to enter Kindergarten the following year. Please contact our Principal, Ms. Carmela Lovano by calling (626) 358-5129, or emailing her at: clovano@icmonrovia.org.

Grief Support Group:

Turner Stevens Live Oak Memorial Park and Mortuary is sponsoring an 11-week series designed for those who have lost someone dear. These sessions will be held on Tuesday evenings from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m., beginning June 28th. Please call (626) 359-5311 to register—there is no charge for this series.
