Did You Know?

Fear is a powerful motivator, and unfortunately, it fuels the secrecy behind many instances of child abuse. A predator will use fear to manipulate his or her victims, making it hard to end the abuse. Often, abuse victims are too scared or embarrassed to speak up, especially if the abuser is someone they know. Abusers can use close relationships to inspire fear of retaliation and may also stress that no one will believe their victim. For a copy of the VIRTUS article, "Don't Let a Perpetrator Use Fear to Manipulate Your Child", email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org, or call (213) 637-7227.
