Cost is $10.00 per person. You'll learn how to have a thriving marriage and how to deal with conflict effectively, integrating differences and promoting unity. She will share about "interpersonal coaching", which demonstrates how to ask for what we need that makes complaining, criticizing and venting completely unnecessary. There will also be time for Q and A, as well as tips on how to forgive and heal. Babysitting will be provided at $5.00 per child ($15.00 max). For additional information, please contact Marie Costa at (626) 232-9178.

Did You Know?

When children express that something is wrong at school or with other activities, it's often the job of caregivers to read between the lines to determine what's really going on. They might say "I'm bored" and need your guidance finding a better school-life balance or engaging in more challenging academic work. Ask them to give examples and to help you understand what is going on. If the child is still being vague, remind them that they can tell you anything and that you'll listen with an open mind. As parents and caregivers, you have the opportunity to help kids deal well with negative feelings and challenges. And, if they are being mistreated in some way, keeping an open line of communication with kids will enable you to be their advocate. For a copy of the VIRTUS article "Communication Tip No. 15: When Children Complain About School", e-mail: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org or call (213) 637-7227.
